

Vehicle types the VSA can help with

BC law says the VSA can help with issues involving many motor vehicles, but not all of them. Below is a list of different types of motor vehicles and shows if the VSA can or cannot help with a complaint about them.

Vehicle types the VSA can help with:

Automobiles

- New and used cars
- Light trucks
- SUVs
- Minivans

Motorcycles

- Motorcycles
- Limited Speed Motorcycles (LSMs)- Small motor scooters, mopeds

Recreational vehicles

- RVs
- Recreational trailers
- Utility & horse trailers with living quarters
- Tent trailers
- Utility trailers with accommodation and a GVWR over 1,400 kg

Vehicle types the VSA cannot help with:

- Motor Assisted Cycles \(MACs\)
- Mini motorcycles (pocket bikes)
- Motorized wheelchairs
- Dirt bikes/Restricted Use Motorcycles (RUMs)
- Truck box campers
- Park model trailers
- Boat trailers
- Golf carts
- Utility trailers with a GVWR of 1,400 kg or less
- Farm equipment (tractors, etc.)
- All-terrain vehicles (ATVs, and Quads and side-by-sides)
- Snowmobiles
- Boats and jet skis